

Direct action is really the best and maybe the only way to learn what it is to be an accomplice.
We're in a fight, so be ready for confrontation and consequence.

- Accomplices Not Allies
by Indigenous Action Media

RECENT ATTACKS ON THE COLONIAL MACHINE IN THE TERRITORY KNOWN AS NORTH AMERICA

April 29th 2016: Police vehicles and Donald Trump supporters are attacked outside a Trump rally.

April 26th: A car dealership is attacked with explosives.

April 23rd: Hundreds confront police protecting a white power rally, constructing barricades and throwing fireworks and rocks at cops.

April 20th: Anti-gay preachers are attacked outside of a high school.

April 14th: Police are attacked by molotov cocktails during a spontaneous demo against recent police killings.

April 12th: A log loader is sabotaged.

April 11th: Police and government buildings are attacked during a demonstration against an officer killing of a native man.

April 6th: Police vehicles burned and corporate property attacked during a demonstration against an officer killing of a black man.

April 1st: Sacred Rock camp is established, blocking the construction of the Dakota Access Pipeline.

March 30th: The van of a neo-nazi band is extensively vandalized.

March 19th: Donald Trump campaign office is vandalized repeatedly.

March 11th: Inmates at Holman Prison riot, setting fire to the facility and blockading their dorm.

March 9th: State Penitentiary personnel are assaulted multiple times by inmates.

February 27th: On the 43rd anniversary of the Wounded Knee takeover, armed demonstrators eject police attempting to stop the march.

February 26th: Multiple upscale businesses are extensively vandalized in a gentrifying neighborhood.

February 25th: Police are attacked with molotov cocktails after arresting a volunteer at a squatted social center.

January 31st: A TELMEX car is burned in solidarity with prisoners.

January 30th: Multiple luxury cars are vandalized in an expensive neighborhood.

January 27th: A police vehicle is damaged during a high school walkout.

January 25th: Two Enbridge pipelines are sabotaged.

January 3rd: An Enbridge pipeline is sabotaged.

December 31st 2015: A BMW is burned in a gentrified neighborhood.

December 23rd: An explosive device is placed at a Catholic church.

December 20th: A cop car is burned.

December 15th: Government buildings are burned during a demonstration by indigenous communities.

December 7th: A demo against a planned neo-nazi rally attacks corporate property when the fascists fail to show.

December 2nd: A private security vehicle has its tires slashed.

November 23rd: Multiple ATMs are vandalized.

November 18th: Police are attacked with rocks and molotovs while their station is vandalized after a recent shooting of a black man.

November 11th: The windows of an expensive condo building are smashed.

November 2nd: Two banners are dropped and a highway is barricaded against the dumping of sewage in the St. Lawrence river.

October 31st: An explosive device is left at a government building.

October 22nd: Indigenous militants block Canadian Pacific Railway train lines.

October 19th: The offices of three different politicians are extensively vandalized.

October 12th: Christopher Columbus statue painted with graffiti that says "Fuck White Power."

October 5th: An explosive device is left at the Nuclear Sciences Institute.

October 2nd: A police station is extensively vandalized during an overnight shift change.

October: A campaign of graffiti is carried out expressing solidarity with the Unist'ot'en camp.

The list is not even close to complete and the attacks have been chosen for no particular reason. Every attack is based on the complicity and support of broader communities, and building those is no less important of a task.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR POSTER: 1. Make photocopies of the reverse side of this poster. 2. Cook wheatpaste (three parts water to one part flour, slowly heated on a stove while stirring). 3. Use brush to apply wheatpaste to visible surface. 4. Place poster on surface and apply a second layer of wheatpaste on top. 5. Stay safe.